THIS IS ABOUT LEMUKIH VILLAGE

Lemukih Village in Sawan District, Buleleng Regency, North Bali, is a hidden natural gem that still preserves its cultural authenticity and environmental beauty. Located about a 3-hour drive from Ngurah Rai Airport, the village is surrounded by green rice terraces, traditional clove and coffee plantations, and dense tropical forests home to unique mountain flora and fauna. Most special of all, Lemukih sits close to some of North Bali's iconic waterfalls such as Sekumpul, Fiji, and the natural Lemukih waterslide—popular spots for adventure travelers from around the world. The cool mountain air, gentle sound of flowing water, and peaceful atmosphere create a calming escape rarely found in the busy southern tourist areas.
